Dear Harry:

Here is the story as it appeared yesterday. It is not as I wanted it, as the enclosed copies of my original drafts will attest. There was so much haggling over the piece, however, I was glad just to be done with it and get it in the paper. Note your acknowledgment at bottom left.

Also enclosed are the interviews with Peters and Jenkins — for your curiousity only. The rest of the material will go to the JFK library and you can have access to it there.

Thanks for the book.

Best regards,

Ben
